H. Buxton Forman Esqre

46 Marlborough Hill

St Johns Wood

London

of Solomon Optician Albemarle Street of one invention for placing in the ear to relieve deafness. If you can spare time to call upon the Optician, and examine it, I should be most thankful If you consider it useful, and convenient have the goodness to purchase one for me

Do not forget the tinted spectacles, What I use at present is number 10 and I require a degree stronger. My sight is weak, but I am not naturally short sighted

Two trifles may be left at the Embassy when you call, or send for the portrait, directed to my son "Luis Ministerio de Estado" Madrid, under cover to "El Señor Marques de Moral, Primer Secretario"

I enclose the Note for Mrs Hodgate and my Certificate

My little expenses, with the inscription to the Ladies, you will be kind enough to deduct.

With kind remembrances to all, I desire me to remain

Yours very sincerely
